

Paoli Group Company Policies

Document ID: PG-POL-001 Version: 1.0 Effective Date: May 17, 2026

Owner: Human Resources and Compliance

1. Purpose and Scope

This policy defines baseline standards of conduct, confidentiality, acceptable use, and workplace expectations for all personnel participating in Paoli Group engagements.

It applies to employees, contractors, temporary staff, and approved third parties with access to company systems or client information.

2. Code of Conduct

Personnel must maintain professional behavior, respectful communication, and ethical decision-making.

Any harassment, discrimination, retaliation, or abusive behavior is prohibited and subject to review.

- Follow lawful instructions from managers and authorized project leads.
- Protect client and company reputation in internal and external communications.
- Report conflicts of interest immediately.

3. Information Protection

Confidential information may only be used for legitimate work purposes and must not be shared outside authorized channels.

Credentials are personal and must never be transferred, reused, or stored in insecure locations.

All document handling must follow DOMS workflows and the assigned review process.

4. Acceptable Use

Company systems are provided for authorized business use. Users must avoid unsafe software, unapproved storage services, and unsupported communication channels for sensitive data.

Security incidents, suspicious activity, or accidental disclosures must be reported immediately.

5. Enforcement

Violations may result in corrective action, revocation of system access, or termination of engagement based on severity and recurrence.

Acknowledgment

By signing in DOMS, the employee or contractor confirms they reviewed this policy and agree to comply with its requirements while performing work for Paoli Group.

Signature (typed in system): _____ Date: _____